

A Dallas native, Felecia Bouyer attended Bishop College, in 1975. Shortly after college, she stayed in Dallas and was employed many years as an office assistant at UTHSCD. After working as an Assistant to the Assistant Dean at Texas Woman's University, School of Nursing and School of Physical Therapy, she decided to move to Fort Worth, Texas in 1997. She served as the Senior Administrative Assistant to the President of a leading minority construction company for over 8 years. Her skills lead her to join Fort Worth Sister Cities in May of 2007.

When asked about her move, Felecia responded, "Moving to Fort Worth allows me to be more in touch in the community and my surrounding neighbors. I enjoy knowing all of my next door neighbors, visiting downtown and enjoying the many diverse cultural events. The hometown atmosphere is just why I love Texas so much!"
