

Joseph Ramirez has been with Fort Worth Sister Cities International since 2004. He relocated from the island of Maui, Hawaii where he was the Administrative Director and CFO of a nonprofit organization for ten years. Joseph has diversified financial, technical, and supervisory experience having served as VP/Accounting Manager of a general contracting firm as well as Director of Accounting and Data Processing and Corporate Treasurer for several property management and development firms in Washington.

Joseph was on the Advisory Board of a software engineering company, Chair/board member of a local FEMA board for ten years, co-chaired Maui United Way's annual campaign, member of Hawaii's Coalition to End Homelessness, member of the Filipino AIDS Prevention Project and Cultural Core Group of Hawaii. He currently volunteers with United Way of Metropolitan Tarrant County.

Besides Hawaii, Joseph lived in California and Washington but now calls Fort Worth, Texas home.
