

Joshua recently graduated with honors from Texas Christian University with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, with an emphasis on International Relations and a minor in Japanese. Originally from Nashville, TN, Joshua began working with FWSCI as a college intern in our downtown office in 2005. Since then, he has been involved in the planning and facilitating of the International Leadership Academy in 2005 and 2006. He also advised high school students traveling to Toluca, Mexico for the annual Toluca Model United Nations (TOLMUN) Program in October 2006, and served as an Assistant Delegation Leader (ADL) on a second trip to Toluca in March 2007. This summer, he will be traveling to Fort Lauderdale, FL to facilitate youth programs at the Sister Cities International National Conference. Joshua's long term goals are to pursue a Master's degree or PhD in International Relations and/or Peace Studies, and to then pursue a career in international diplomacy, focusing specifically human rights, sustainable development, and citizen diplomacy.
