

Mae Ferguson serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Fort Worth Sister Cities International. She has served in this capacity since 2000. Prior to joining Sister Cities Mae served as Vice President of the Child Study Center Foundation and Development Director of the American Heart Association where she received numerous awards for community organization and development.

Mae also holds the position of President of the board of directors of Sister Cities International (SCI), the national governing body based in Washington, D.C. SCI has 2,400 member communities in the U.S. matched with cities in 134 countries focusing on programs in four key areas: sustainable development; arts and culture; youth and education; and humanitarian assistance.

Other board affiliations include the Convention & Visitors Bureau, Women's Policy Forum and Downtown Fort Worth, Inc., as well as the International Committee of the Southwestern Exposition and Rodeo. Mae is a member of American Women for International Understanding, Leadership Fort Worth, Downtown Rotary, Fort Worth Junior League and National Association of Fundraising Executives.

Born and raised in Meridian, Mississippi and now a 30-year resident of Texas, Mae has a son who resides in Washington, D.C. and daughter in Los Angeles.